- Please Note:
- You must pay an amount of income tax and/ or capital gains tax at least equal to the tax that Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children may reclaim on your donations in the tax year.
  - You can cancel the declaration at any time by notifying Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children
  - If in the future your circumstances change and you no longer pay tax on your income and capital gains equal to the tax that Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children reclaims, you can cancel your declaration (see note 2).
  - If you pay tax at the higher rate you can claim further tax relief in your Self-Assessment tax return.
  - If you are unsure whether your donations qualify for Gift Aid tax relief, please contact Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children or visit the HM Revenue & Customs website <http://www.hmrc.gov.uk/charity>
  - Please notify Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children if you change your name or address while the declaration is still in force

Thank you for helping to support disabled UK children and their families

Data Protection Act

Newlife Foundation for Disabled Children is registered as a Data Controller with the Information Commissioner and is committed to ensuring that all personal information is treated properly in accordance with the Data Protection Act 1998. Your details will be held securely by Newlife Foundation, for the purpose of claiming gift aid on all donations made by you. You can cancel your declaration at any time by notifying Newlife Foundation either in writing or by telephone. We will then not claim Gift Aid on any donations you make on or after the date of cancellation.
